Everton have received an immediate 10-point deduction after being found to have breached the Premier League's financial rules. English top-flight clubs are permitted to lose £105m over three years, and an independent commission found Everton's losses to 2021-22 amounted to £124.5m. The punishment is the biggest sporting sanction in the competition's history and leaves Everton 19th in the table. The club said they were "both shocked and disappointed" and would appeal. In a statement, Everton said: "The club does not recognise the finding that it failed to act with the utmost good faith and it does not understand this to have been an allegation made by the Premier League during the course of proceedings".

The Serb, 36, who lost to the Italian in the group stage, avenged that with a 6-3 6-3 win in Turin, Italy. This year has been full of records for Djokovic and so it seems only fitting that his tour season should end with another at an event where he was already its oldest champion. Sunday's victory pulled him ahead of Federer for titles won at the ATP Finals, while he was confirmed as year-end men's world number one for a record-extending eighth time earlier in the tournament. This year he also surpassed Steffi Graf's record for the most weeks spent at the top of the singles rankings, with his tally now about to stand at 400 from Monday. Djokovic won three of this season's four Grand Slam singles titles to overtake Rafael Nadal's men's tally of 22 and draw level with Australian Margaret Court's all-time record of 24. That included a record-extending 10th title at the Australian Open - which is where in January he will get the chance to become the outright record holder with a 25th major.
